I can not believe in anything from this girl
She's been around the moon, even saved the world
She cannot depend on anything she needs Like songs that I can sing to her she can't sing back at me

There's nothing here to take No heart inside to break
Nothing left to fake So fake it now

You've got to know, know it's now or never Now or never Somehow I'm losing now or never Now or never

I cannot relax when you're not around
I can't face the truth inside here on solid ground
I cannot put faith on anything I see

There's nothing here to throw at you You can't sling back at me
There's nothing left to hide No feelings left inside
There's nothing here to try So try me now

You've got to know, know it's now or never Now or
never
Somehow I'm losing now or never Now or never

Ain't it funny how I seem to love you
A little less the moment I get off
Ain't it funny how I'm so sure of myself
But then I, then I get so lost

You've got to know, know it's now or never Now or
never
Somehow I'm losing now or never Now or never
