I see you coming back to life
I didn't know I'd win you down
I watch you in the morning sun
Your sleeping hard alone but
Now I think the darkness is done

Belief, belief
I will be in your belief
Oh, real life

People feeling safe when you're sad
Throws into relief what they have
Sympathy just tightens the nut
Their smiling but they are thinking
They're before the Grace of God

Belief, belief
I will be in your belief
Oh, real life

Let me be in your real life, real life
I'll take the way to your real life, real life
Oh, your real life
Not the one you made to hide away

I had a dream of you and I
We were falling side by side
There was no where left for us to be
And nothing complicated
Just the way you looked at me

Belief, belief
I will be in your belief
Oh, real life

Let me be in your real life, real life
I'll take the way to your real life, real life
Oh, oh, your real life, real life
Not the one you made to hide away

Not the one you made to hide away
Not the one you made to hide away
