I will pass by your house and not look
I won't pick up the phone
I'll read a book
I will put your pictures in a wooden box
I will find a heart next time
With fewer locks

I can let you go
I can let you go
But I can lie as well
Ask your friends how you doing
They say you're doing well
But you can lie as well
So well

I won't feel the rush of you under my skin
My poor brain will hear your voice

I'm not tuning in
Too soon to know the first thing I'll forget
I can let this go
Just not, your memory yet

I can let you go
I can let you go
But I can lie as well
Ask myself how you doing
You say you're doing well
But you can lie as well
So well
