Title: Come Back To Me

-----
Come back to me
Come back to me and all the things you knew
Come back to me
Theres a million things we never got to do

I like to think of me and you as a little more than what we left behind It's funny how and things go wrong, my love for you grew stronger everytime.

But it's so easy letting go
Now that everybody knows
There are times when you're not able make that choice

Come back me

Cause baby I wont make it on my own
The words we chose
And the efforts it made to put each other down
Your voice it keeps persuing me
And I should haav acted differetly, I know
But everytime you get to close,
I tend to run away from you my love

And I miss be a part of your side
Sure miss beein kept in mind
How I miss be a part of your side
Sure miss beein kept in mind

Come back me

But it's so easy letting go
Now that everybody knows
There are times when you're
not able make that choice
