Title: I thought I Knew You

Trying to accept the things you do
I can't give any reason for it that anyone could piss me off like you do
I can't give any motives

I thought I knew you...
I thought I knew you...

Slowly going through the things you said
Like anything you ever said was true trying to find some comfort in what we had but I thought I knew you..

I thought I knew you...
I thought I knew you...

I hope that I won't notice if you lie
I'm smoothing over small offences
picturing you with another guy
your face keep falling out of focus

I thought I knew you...
I thought I knew you...
I thought I knew you...

I thought I knew..
I thought I knew you...
