So, you want to play "truth or dare" with a guy like me - see what's underneath when I'm as open as the clear blue sky and as far away - but if you don't mind then I could sure use a girl like you would you come with me if I asked you to
If I told you, you were beautiful
So long baby your affection turns me on girl, you drive me crazy to be with someone when you're on your own girl, someone like you 4 am, I'm outside your house your door is shut - but your window's not I spot your face as I turn away there's a presence made - a yesterday and I could sure use a girl like you but would you let me go if I asked you to
If I told you, you were beautiful

it's the singer not the song girl, that catches your fancy
