Title: She Gave Me Away

she gave me away
even though she wasn't supposed to say
in front of all of my friends today I've decided to keep it for myself she made me hide my face..

she gave me away
I had to take a fall from grace
she gave me away
I didn't even defend myself but hey
I get a little stronger everyday and i'm not ashamed

she made me stay at home for days
she gave me away
we were supposed to share the blame can't forget the look upon her face when she gave me away
