"The Dark Half"

Visit "The Dark Half" on MotoLyrics.com you're running out of time boy show me what you've got in a couple of minutes they'll be shutting you up everybody'll say they're sorry but don't believe a word they're giving in to the dark half that's what I've heard so, you decided to make it on your own who's to take the blame then if you loose control

everybody'll say they're sorry
but you can't see why you're just keeping up track with the dark half, tonight and who'll be there to supportyou when the shit comes down you've got to ask yourself now do you want them around 'cause everybody's gonna be sorry when you run dry and you'll be stuck out here with the dark half by your side so, now you're touching ground with us

everyone here's a victim but you're the boss and although you're truly sorry you've got to put on a show if you talk the talk, you've got to walk this walk alone
