Getting used to the silence
Used to waking up alone
I never went for affection
Iâ€™m just the guy sheâ€™s leaning on

And if I should tell you lies
Be good enough and try to sort me out
And if I should say goodbye
Be good enough and try to turn me â€™round
â€™Cause Iâ€™m up for you and I

Tried to see the world through your eyes
But it didnâ€™t make the change
And when I tried to make it in your world
I just couldnâ€™t find my place

And if I should tell you lies
Be good enough and try to sort me out
And if I should say goodbye
Be good enough and try to turn me â€™round
â€™Cause Iâ€™m up for you and I

So how do you want me to treat you
I canâ€™t even save myself
And how am I supposed to please you
When I wish you were someone else

And if I should tell you lies
Be good enough and try to sort me out
And if I should say goodbye
Be good enough and try to turn me â€™round
â€™Cause Iâ€™m up for you and I
I'm up for you and I

And if I should tell you lies
Be good enough and try to turn me 'round
If I should say goodbye
Be good enough and try to to sort me out
â€™Cause Iâ€™m up for you and I Think I'm up for you and I
