Time is running out
She's not coming over
Not even dropping by

And I don't need no other friend
Don't want no other lover
Not as long as she's around

This time.. this time..

So you've seen me on my knees
Surrounded by memories
It's the one thing you can't have

You've been watching me crawl
The least you could do is call
Or have the curtsy to call back

This time.. this time.. this time.. this time...

And everywhere I go
Everyone I get to know
They all seem to drop out
Baby, won't you come back
Just to show me around?

Time is running out
She's not coming over
Not even dropping by

And I could use another friend
Someone else's shoulder
Someone else's hand

This time.. this time.. this time.. this time..

And everywhere I go
Everyone I get to know
They all seem to drop out
Baby, won't you come back
Just to show me around?
