I might act real cool
Pretend i know the rules
But that is no excuse
So lift me up again
And feel the same
All i can say
Well it feels great
You wont regret
Lift me up again
Lift me up again
Still i act real cool
Pretend i know the rules
So there must be some use
For all the grey that's you
For what i am to do
To make you feel the same
To lift me up again
I still act real cool
To combine the blue
With all the grey that's you
And mix the colours right
The ones you like
With shades i find
Ill fade your grey as soon as i
Lift it up again
Lift it up again
So i act real cool
Pretend i know the rules
Cause that's all i can do
Bout all the grey that's you
And what i am to do
To make you feel the same
To lift me up again
