In every crowd im o.k. for a while
But every now and then somehow i find
By running up and down
Just one thing i can think of
Is quietly fading out
But i wont make a sound
Im hesitating
Cant do this on my own
By what you're saying
I guess you dance alone
Well i am waiting
One cigarette ago
I thought wed be home soon
Every crowd im in
In every company
Everything is you in here
All i do and take
Every move you make
Everything in here relates
By moving to the sound
Its all that i can think of
And by hitting the ground
The rhythm gets you
Im hesitating
Cant do this on my own
If what you're saying
Is you still dance alone
Then I'll be waiting
One cigarette or more
I hope to be home soon
Every crowd im in
Makes it all begin
Same old song i hear
This sad melody
I tend to be polite
Behave and stay around
Ill be doing fine
At least for a while
Run run every crowd im in you can not run
Something makes it all begin
Go go same old song i hear i told you so
I hear this sad melody

Down down i tend to be polite you hit the ground
Right now behave and stay around
See me I'll be doing fine it sets you free
Please try at least for a while
In every crowd you're o.k. for a while
In every company but not tonight
By dancing to the sound
Its all that you can think of
