If i can not decide what i will wake up and look like
The rest of my day is spent tearing me in my departments
Left no choice but to do what i didn't think was possible
Anchored reality finds me bothered in peices.
Enemy decides who i will be
Now i'm penalized and lost
Can't find the end of me
I've got one life to live in this world i've sinned in.
Charred, broken yellow teeth softened kiss seduces me
Can be that easily taken by what is left to see
I know my inner pride is cause for my skin to hive
Damaged behavior leaves me no room for mercy.
Enemy decides who i will be
Now i'm penalized and lost
Can't find the end of me
I've got one life to live in this world i've sinned in.
I've got one you don't
You let them know
I'm tired
I see you
You're a liar
You felt good.
Enemy decides who iwill be
Now i'm penalized and lost
Can't find the end of me
I've got one life to live in this world i've sinned in.
Can't find the end of me
Can't find the end of me
Can't find the end of me
Can't see the enemy.
