Here are the lyrics to [minus.driver]'s new cd called "a message for you"

Inhuman

You told me not to seek the truth
But it's out there, it's too late,
I've found out you've deceived me
I've learned my lesson, my discretion
Is that i want it right now
All this guessing leaves me stressing
The importance of our revolutions
Around bad solutions

You are so inhuman
Your words are not that useless
You say you have the control
But that is the biggest lie of all

Someone told me to seek the truth
And slowly to reveal your plan to Kill us all if this is your lesson
And you're testing me then i won't fall out
And if that's your best, then better yet
You better keep your bad solutions
For your institutions
It's your institutions that make
Bad solutions

You are so inhuman
Your words are not that useless
You say you have the control
But that is the biggest lie of all
You are so inhuman
Your words are not that useless
Even when you say you have the control
You told the biggest lie of all

Your walls can't keep us inside

No they can't at all
And if that's your best
Then better yet you'd better run back home
I'll put up a fight with all might
But you'll still want me gone
I know this will eat you up inside
You know you're gonna fall

You are so inhuman
Your words are not that useless
You say you have the control
But that is the biggest lie of all
You are so inhuman
Your words are not that useless
Even when you say you have the control
You told the biggest lie of all

Sure Thing

Is it strange to know
How easily you stopped me?
I've got a reason to blame now
I'll run into the shade with it
I knew you could stop me
But i kind of liked the game
I should have had more self control
And it drives me insane
That there's nothing i can do
About the current situation
And it blows my mind
But that's not what i came for
That's not why i'm here
Looking for an answer
Has created all my fears
It has put me on the run
I act like i'm having fun
I hide all my insecurities
Until i explode

Like a gun
Like a sure thing fired at the sun
Would you run into the grave?
With a gun
With my blood stained hands feeling numb
Would you blow it all away?

How did you get here?
I've got to know
I've tried to figure that out
But that's not what i came for
It's not why i'm here

Looking for an answer
Has created all my fears
Until i explode

Like a gun
Like a sure thing fired at the sun
Would you run into the grave?
With a gun
With my blood stained hands feeling numb
Would you blow it all away?
Like a gun
Like a sure thing fired at the sun
Would you blow it all away?

What have i become?
Self control
Letting go
Has lost all it's fun
Cause there's nothing i can do
About the current situation
And it blows my mind

Like a gun
Like a sure thing fired at the sun
Would you run into the grave?
With a gun
Would you blow it all away?
Like a gun
Would you blow it all away?

Lie To You

I lied
It's not cause i wanted to
Trust me without you i'm incomplete
You can have my tongue if i can't Apologize for my stance
I've killed the romance
So i'm standing here to claim
Responsibility

Cause i lied to you
It's not like i wanted to
And every chance i had to tell the truth
I lied to you
I lied to you
Because i wanted you
And every chance i had to tell the truth
I lied

I lied

Dirty i'll never fall asleep
And you can have my eyes
Cause i'll never see you smile
The way i seem to portray
My emotions to you seem like
I don't have a heart

When i lied to you
And every chance i had to tell the truth
I lied to you
I lied to you
Because i wanted you
I lied
I lied

It's not cause i wanted to
It's because i wanted you
It's my fault i'm confused
I'm such a fool

Cause i lied
I lied
I lied

When i lied to you
And every chance i had to tell the truth
I lied to you
I lied to you
Because i wanted you
I lied
I lied
Light Years

I've watched you
Live on your esthetics
Your fake tits, they're fake you know
The answer's in the problem
But the question's your soul
Until you discover that your comfort
Has a price
Well you'll be left alone
This you better realize

When the world explodes
You'll be light years away from home

We all get cold if you're cold
If the world explodes
And you're not where you want to go
You're holding on to what's wrong

You're loosening your grip
So we're gonna have to take a trip
It only takes a minute if you want to live
You've got to put your pride down
Before it tears your insides out
It only takes a minute to travel worlds away
In a day

When the world explodes

Take my hand
We'll float away
We'll travel light years away
We'll travel light years

When the world explodes

Real Life

You walk by me
And take me over
I will never have control
It never ends when i see you
With a new make over
You had to say you were someone else
It never crossed my mind i wouldn't get it
I'm playing it by the rules you break
That doesn't change my moral taste
I thought you had a reason to defend it
Will this be your last remark
It doesn't matter really
Cause i'm changing colors
Erasing lovers
Ok

Real life

Never ends
So i'll do what i want to do
I have a message for you
It's the beauty of the truth

Don't believe what they told you
Any more than they can throw you
It's the lesson you learned
And that's the reason you'll burn
It never ends
I'll keep my friends right by my side
And if they are true they'll never lie
It's about time we all start
Changing colors
To erase what others say

Never ends
So i'll do what i want to do
I have a message for you
It's the beauty of the truth
Real life
Never ends
So i'll do what i want to do
I have a message for you

Where do i begin?
It should have never started out this way
Where do i begin?
Where do i begin?
I need to make my way back to..
Real life never ends
So i'll do what i have to do
I have a message for you
It's the beauty of the truth

Never ends
So i'll do what i want to do
I have a message for you
It's the beauty of the truth
Never ends
So i'll do what i want to do
I have a message for you
Real life never ends
Real life never ends, it never ends
