Out from the aisle
You looked up and smiled at me
We both need denial
To move away the pieces that we broke
Stepped inside to find out
Hope was low should have known
Its alright i'll swear to control you
I'll let you know.
If i finally saved you
Would you have home to run to
If i tried to blame you
I'm sorry love.
Looked into her eyes
I was scared that i would never face the day
Where i seek to find a third kind a trial
You left me in the door.
If i finally saved you
Would you have home to run to
If i tried to blame you
I'm sorry love.
Each time i reached out you refused me
More, more
Each time i reached out i got cut out
I'll be your savior.
If i finally saved you
Would you have home to run to
If i tried to blame you
I'm sorry love.
Looked in o her eyes
I was scared that i would never face the day
Where i seek to find a third kind a trial
I'll be your savior.
Each time i reached out you refused me
More, more
Each time i reached out i got cut out
I'll be your savior
If i finally saved you
Would you have home to run to
If i tried to blame you
I'm sorry love.
