I can't make her like before
Broken picture stays the same
So many years has gone by
But the moment still remains
And she's numb now
She's changing so strangely
It's over let's stop all the flatteries
How can I tame your heart
When all your feelings went astray

From the bottom of my heart
She lives inside
From the bottom of my heart
She makes me cry
I fall between two stools
I crawl yet I stumble down

You we're the only one that stole my breath away
The feeling's gone into a paper of blood writings
This empty room is full of loneliness and emptiness
She's happy when I'm away
I'm sorry we're not okay
How can I visualize
Your tongue is full of wrath

Just like a photograph
Ten thousand words to say
Just like photograph
I'm imaginary
Just like a photograph
It's hard to forget you
Rip my heart out
I'll suffer now
