Break this pain in me
Hearts are cold and numb
My eyes seems to burn
I cried for sympathy

I want you to be proud of what I am on the inside not on the outside
I'm pretending to be happy
But deep inside I'm bleeding
These feelings hurt like bullets piercing in my heart
Tonight I'm sleeping with a tear
This pain won't disappear in me

'Cause I'm depression and you are depressant
My right hand seems to fail
And my voice is deafening
I'm feeling numb, I'm feeling awful

And now it's time
It's time to break the pain inside
