we are so much alike you and i feline grace and style and eyes i can take care of myself you see but thank you content if you just let me be

mysterious creature
i see it in your eyes
human you seem to me
you always seem to know

i'll let you know when i need you when i want you

human you seem to me
