"Dressed Like A Cow"

Well, I went to a movie with a girl last night
Dressed like a cow but she looked so fine
Bought my ticket just in time
Sat right up close like she was mine

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tells no lie

I came into the light and out of the dark
It turns out that I was really a calf
Oh, I've been a fool for, oh, so long
But how can all of these people be wrong

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tells no lie

But then it seemed so sad
I never felt that bad
But then I caught her eye
An innocence that tells no lie

Yeah
