More than a lover
Don't you know you'll always be
A good friend to me
When tears are discovered
Don't you know I'll always help
A good friend in need

But what's done is done
So I sing to you a song we left unsung
When you're falling down
And sometimes it seems
Too much to carry on
It's too much to carry on

More than a lover
Don't you know you'll always be
A good friend to me
Where pain is uncovered
Will you walk with me through the burden
Of time

When you can't break away
And you find
Sorrow splits the sky
Twisting your heart inside
But there's nothing left to hide
Nothing left to hide

More than a lover
Don't you know
You'll always be
A good friend to me
