For the longest I've been bound(ed),
to look for that dime I'll hire you full time.

He has to be found, has to be fine
has to stick to my mind.

And in my search for man power
I saw a nice face and it matched my taste.

And now that I've seen that rare flower,
I can't let it go to waste I have to study all case.

You have the right qualifications
would you please come work for me
It comes to work some satisfaction
Think about it, then tell meeeee

[chorus]
Do you want this job?
'Cause baby boo boo,
you've been headhunted.

Do you want this job?
'Cause baby boo boo,
you've been headhunted.

Tell me, do you want this job?
'Cause baby boo boo,
you've been headhunted.

Do you want this job?
Cause baby boo boo,
you've been headhunted.

I've been firing.
And now I'm hiring...you're headhunted.

I've been firing.
And now I'm hiring...you're headhunted.

I've been seing you around,
seen the way you move,

seen the way you groove.

I like the way you clown,
you're never too smooth
I like your whole mood.

You have the right qualifications
would you please come work for me
It comes to work some satisfaction
Think about it, then tell meeeee
