From the second that i saw you I knew you was my number one.
Because I didnt know what to tell you, and my body was numb.
I had to let you know that I felt you, like a shot from a gun.
And I wanted to know you and write you a song.

Oooh, all I really wanna do
Is come home, and spend my time with you
Oooh, all I really wanna see is you surrounding me

Who make you? Who make love and had you come out
this way?
Who make you? Ey I hope I meat her someday. x2

It must be the trинny water that make your skin so nice
It must be the trинny weahter that get your complexion
so right
It must be your mother and you father that get your lips
so right
Your eyes of a future, that shines so bright

Oooh, all I really wanna do
Is come home, and spend my time with you
Oooh, all I really wanna see is you surrounding me

Who make you? Who make love and had you come out
this way?
Who make you? Ey I hope I meet her someday. x2

So when ...
And carneval is gone
I know everything will be all right, if you are by my side.

Ooh ooh, ooh ooh
All i really wanna say, is make some more one day.

Who make you? x6
