From my window..
From my window I see
You face to face...
You and mortality.
Kissed your nose..
Kissed it with poison
And when you spoke...
So much came out at once.

Wet...
Wasted...
All because I threw it away...

Pale...
Pure...
Lost and Obscure... (x3)

(Chorus)
When all of this conflict came
Into view from my window pane
I became...
When all this trauma came
Into sight in my eyes
I realized you're..

I threw it away.
I threw it away.
Wet and wasted.

(Chorus)
