My neighbors car got stole last night
right out of his driveway.
We heard the dogs barking,
we never paid them any mind.
And mary says she's gonna lock the door from now on when we go away.
I've been walking around this farm wondering if it's time...

Time to get a gun.
Thats what I've been thinking.
I could afford one,
if I did just a little less drinking.

Time to put something,
between me and the sun.
When the talking is over
it's time to get a gun.

Last week a government man was there when I walked out my back door.
He said i'm sorry to bother you it don't matter anymore ause even while we were talking right here where we stand, they give plans for a four lane highway and a big old overpass.

It's time to get a gun
thats what i've been thinking
I could afford one
if I did just a little less drinking.
Time to put something
between me and the sun.
When the talking is over
it's time to get a gun.

Mary says she's worried about her stuff and her kids.
Never known anybody had a gun and her daddy never did.
But I think it should be up to me cause when it's all said and done somebody's gotta walk into the night and I'm gonna be that one.

It's time to get a gun
that's what I'm thinking.
I could afford one
if I did just a little less drinking.

Its time to put something
between me and the sun.
When the talking is over
its time to get a gun.
When the party is over
it's time to get a gun.
