Right now, this is getting serious
I gotta feeling that won't go I'm here, waiting out on the street Looking up at you window

I felt those loving eyes
But are they only for me Or are they tainted now, with biterties and memories

That girl
she'll knock you on the floor
she just broke you heart apart
and left you wanting more
That girl
She's taking on your dreams
Well you can bring her all you want
But that girl, that girls not me

(no no that girls not me that girls not me)

She stays, like frozen water in your eyes Always something to cry for She moves, like a veil across the sky Messin' with your survival

Well I'm not perfect but I say what i can see
And i don't wanna share
Her biterties and memories

That girl
she'll knock you on the floor
she just broke you heart apart
and left you wanting more
That girl
She's taking on your dreams
Well you can bring her all you want
that girls not me

(that girl, that girls not me)

ooh that girls not me
(that girl, that girls not me)

She takes until she's had enough And you'll keep hanging for her love
She said that nothing comes for free
That girls not me

That girl
she'll knock you on the floor
and left you wanting more
That girl
Is not the same as me
I wont leave you emptier
With biterties and memories

I know
she's always on your mind I'm still waiting on a lead We're running out of time
That girl
Is taking on her dreams
You can bring her all you want
But that girl, that girls not me

(that girl, that girls not me)
ooh that girls not me
(that girl, that girls not me)
ooh that girls not me
(that girl, that girls not me)
ooh that girls not me
(that girl, that girls not me)
ooOOOOoooooooOOOOOh
(that girl, that girls not me)
(that girl, that girls not me)
(that girl, that girls not me)
(that girl, that girls not me)
