Because of lust he embraced the fear of death
So the fear could not exist
He made union with evil

He thought he had all the keys
For the doors of life and freedom
But he found the key in a dream
To dark erotic fantasies

Take my flesh
Feel me deep inside
Whores from hell
In the dream i feel truly free

The dream turned to nightmare
When he woke up in the dark reality
But he could feel it wasn't't dream
Sluts of night were real

He came to this church to preach
To contem unholy desires
But he felt a touch of lust
He embraced the darkness
And became what he always wanted to be
Apostate in orgy

Martyr and saint

Apostate in Orgy!
