Verse 1:

Though the years are going by
I could've sworn you were by my side
Our chemistry was locked up tight
But you went down without a fight

I thought I knew you so well,
But now...
My hearts burning like hell

Chorus:(x2)

Now I've gone past the Years
Through the lies
Past my sins and across the skies

I didn't know there was someone else because if I did I could talk to you
And in our sickness, and in our health
It was the worst thing you could ever do
