spoken: "Ahem, this is my poem from me...to you, I wrote it to prove how much I love...you. You aren't goofy, and you always smell...good, you're very perty, and your breath is real...good."

Let's Go!

You're the loveliest girl I have ever met
And probably ever will When I'm with you, I just wish time would please stand still
When It's just you and me
There's nothing I'd rather do
Than sit around and hold your hand
And say how much I love you
Everytime I see you
My heart skips a beat
My friends all think you're rad
And my mom thinks you're neat
You're beautiful and sincere

And not to mention sweet
I just wanna' bake you pie
And wash your pretty feet
I love the way you smell
And how you say my name
You do that cute thing with your hair
And you don't think I'm lame
You forget things easily
And my letters make you cry
When I see your perfect smile
All I could do is sigh
Cause, Everytime I see you
My heart skips a beat
My friends all think that you're rad
And my mommy thinks you're neat
You're beautiful and sincere
And not to mention sweet
Hey, Darling, you're the one
You've swept me off my feet
