I am awake and I'm ashamed
I am afraid that I'm always without you
I cannot speak and I can't breathe
I cannot sleep and I can't dream without you
And I'll memorize your face
We are ok
According to the news today
And you missed this place before you went away
And what would you say if there was some way to rewind
I'd see your face at least a thousand times
Everyday
You are somewhere but I'm not there
You re everywhere but I'm nowhere without you
All of this time I've been thinking of you
We've been drifting away from this everyday
And all that I have I would give it to you
But you only see in your shades of gray
What do the headlines say to you
