She tried to make her voice heard.
She tried and tried, couldn't say a word.
With a needle in her hand, anyone didn't understand.
She let herself drift away.

She found her way out of this...
She found her way out of this misery.

Truth hurts, cuts like a knife.
We should give up and leave this life.
Truth burns deep in my veins.
We should give up, no one gains.

I tried to make my voice heard.
I tried and tried, couldn't say a word.
With a needle in her hand, anyone didn't understand.
She let herself drift away.

She found her way out of this misery.

Truth hurts, cuts like a knife.
We should give up and leave this life.
Truth burns deep in my veins.
We should give up, no one gains.

Truth hurts, cuts like a knife.
We should give up and leave this life.
Truth burns deep in my veins.
We should give up, no one gains.
Truth hurts.
Truth hurts.
We should give up, no one gains.
