Closing your eyes won't offer solution.
I'm king of the hill, I am cream of the cream!
After all this, there's one conclusion.
I'm living in sin, but I'm living my dream!

No room for loser! No room for loser!

She's got a ticket, but no ride! (Last train left and
whistled "You'll Die") Left in the dark, shouting goodbye. (No one's out there by her side)
She's got a ticket, but no ride! (Last train left and
whistled "You'll Die")
There's no way out this night, and no one's out there by
her side!

I accuse you and I'm waiting for your answer.
I throw it back, opinions based on facts!
Can't you see our future killed by the cancer?
That's far away, and I'm not even coming back!

You don't give a shit, if there is no tomorrow.
You exhale too much, your next breath you'll borrow!

(Mutual respect, we're heading towards a dead end.
Late regrets before mother's revenge!)

whistled "You'll Die") Left in the dark, shouting goodbye. (No one's out there
by her side)
whistled "You'll Die")
There's no way out this night, and no one's out there by
her side!
