I'm killing time and I'm waiting here for you
I haven't seen you for the past 3 days

I'm crossing lines and I'm telling your secrets
All my thoughts are buried in shades of grey

Return to Sender (Sender)
This letter was marked the day you died Reoccurring memories that speak the truth and bring to light the pain

Return to Sender (Sender)
This letter was marked red with your blood Reaffirming all the things that speak the truth and
bring to life the change

It's 3am and I watched this rose die
The walls bled and the darkness fell like rain

I'll give you time to finish your story
The walls red and it shows you chose your grave

Return to Sender (Sender)
This letter was marked the day you died
Reoccurring memories that speak the truth and bring to
light the pain

Return to Sender (Sender)
This letter was marked red with your blood
Reaffirming all the things that speak the truth and
bring to life the change
