First things first, Ms. Monroe rises from the dead
The henchmen came, knocked down the door
To my never never world

I hope you die, die monster die
Die monster die, die monster die

First things first, we must find out which mirror evil lives
I enter this door, look into the mirror
I don't recognize this face, it's lookin' back at me

Die, die monster die
Die monster die, die monster die

There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
Oh

I hope you die, die monster die
Die monster die, die monster die

There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
(Die monster die)
There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
(Die monster die)
There's a place where the mirrors don't lie
(Die monster die)

Die monster die
