kotoshi mo saite iru anata no suki na hana mireba omoidasu anata no suki na uta When I look at the flower that you love that blooms even this year, I remember the song you love

* In my heart
In my soul
In my love
omoide wa iro mo asezu ni
In my dreams
In my eyes
In my love
ima mo waraikakete iru Without even the color of the memory fading I begin to laugh even now tashika na kotae nado nai no kitto dakara kokoro wa samayou no darou I'm sure there are no positive answers That's probably why my heart is wandering around wakatte iru tsumori namida wa itsuka wa kiete yuku koto mo mata dareka ni deau koto mo I intend to understand that the tears will someday disappear; and that I'll also meet someone again

* repeat

anata ga kureta tokei wa ima mo jikan wo kizande iru watashi soba no de Even now, the watch you gave me is ticking away next to me

* repeat x2
