

Corbin & Hanner

"Concrete Cowboy"

Visit "Concrete Cowboy" on MotoLyrics.com

Seven PM I left Norfolk Virginia a little night trip down to Alabam

Early next morning I was loaded and ready hauling rolled steel out of Birmingham

Got my eyes on the road my back to the load and my hands on the wheel

I'm a long run rider I'm a concrete cowboy rolling down
the road on rubber and steel

[guitar]

Dropped off a load out in San Diego layed up with a girl who lives by the bay

Called my dispatcher and I'm hauling nitro but it's alright I'm gonna get double pay

Got my eyes on the road...

[guitar]

Drove to Duluth by way of Kansas City layed up with Loretta out in Omaha

I'm making a midnight run to Miami hauling nine pound hammers out of Sagina

Got my eyes on the road...

[guitar]

I get so tired man I get so lonely sometimes I wonder if it's worth the cost

But I keep on rollin' down these highways of freedom
Black smoke pourin' from my dual exhausts

Got my eyes on the road...

I'm a long run rider I'm a concrete cowboy rolling down
the road on rubber and steel

Visit Corbin & Hanner page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.