There's a lot of people , who have all the answers
And they're happy to tell you just what you should do
When it comes down to it, all that really matters
Is what works for me and what works for you
Hey, if it gets you through the night
If it takes you through the darkness to the mornin' light
If it feels good, then it's all right
If it gets you through the night
Draw your own line between pain and pleasure
Just don't hurt me and I won't hurt you
One person's trash is another one's treasure
Choose your own path, find your own truth
Hey, if it gets...
Raise your own flag, fly your own colors
There's more than one answer, there's more than one way
Life doesn't happen in black-and -white
This is all I know, this is all I can say
Hey, if it gets...
