Everynight, everyday
Everynight and day or anytime at all
When I'm alone, I'm never blue
'Cause I've got you
I sing high, I sing low
I sing moon in June and spoon in every tune
That any crooner ever knew
I've got you
I've got you, when I need someone to sweep me away
I've got you, when I need someone to lay down and stay
I've got you, it doesn't matter what I do
I've got you
Down the road, >round the bend
Seems you never know which way to go
Until you've found a friend to help you through I've found you
So here we go, throughout the years
Taking everything we know that will Help to make love grow straight and true
I've got you
I've got you, I don't know if I can ever repay
I've got you, what you've given me everyday
I've got you, I can't believe its true
I've got you
I've got you
