Visit "Heavy And Leaving" on MotoLyrics.com

The days are piling up and I don't know that I can take it
And freedom by design is so far gone I'll never make
And everything's so heavy that I think I want to leave it And it's weight that I don't need I think it's time that I relieved it

CHORUS:

Heavy and I'm leavin', heavy and I'm gone
It's heavy and I'm leavin' here, so long
Heavy and I'm leavin', heavy and I'm gone
It's heavy and I'm leavin' here, so long

Well outside ain't so good today it's windy and it's raining
And it's been so bad so long that I can't say I see it changing
The talk that I've been subject to seems mostly unrelated
And these blues have been allowed to run/continue unabated

CHORUS

Discouraged fingers with no follow through No courage lingers like you want it to Discouraged fingers with no follow through Discouraged fingers with no love for you

Well these hands have always been too slow in the past Reluctance greeted nearly every task
Now my old heart tells me he wants it done fast Discouraged fingers they resist to the last
