A new day, a new dream
Waking up but still sleeping
All the time remembering
Pictures of your 1000 dreams

Again and again and again
And again the same dream

Is it too exhausting
To be in the wondering?
Don't you know it will repeat
Until you find the meaning?

Again and again and again
And again the same dream
Again and again and again
And again the same dream
Again and again and again
And again the same dream

Another chance, take a break
Face to face, big escape
Rewind and sublime
1000 dreams to reach the one

Again and again and again
And again the same dream
Again and again and again
And again the same dream
Again and again and again
And again the same dream

A new day, a new dream
Waking up but still sleeping
All the time remembering
Pictures of your 1000 dreams

Again, again, dream
