Lost in the city that never sleeps
Empty shells on the streets
The life full of devices
In a lack of caresses

High-tech, no love, neon lights don't stop
High-tech, no love, neon lights don't stop

Electronic city, electronic city
Electronic city, electronic city

Need a new microphone?
What for? My voice is gone with the wind
Holding wires in despair
No one here to repair

Looking for amphetamine
Dreams don't make you dream
And when you look behind the scene
There is no electro queen

Electronic city, electronic city
Electronic city, electronic city

High-tech, no love, neon lights don't stop
High-tech, no love, neon lights don't stop
