

Miss Kittin & The Hacker "Emotional Interlude"

Visit "Emotional Interlude" on MotoLyrics.com

I just wanna be good
I don't wanna be rude
Take off your attitude
It's an emotional interlude

Gimme love food
It's all good

Please can you be more delicate with me?
Please can you handle me more carefully?
Please can you be more carefully?

I just wanna be good
And I don't wanna be rude

We all feel mute under our suit
Let me start, let me debut
Inner senses interlude

More carefully, more carefully
More carefully, more carefully

Please can you be more delicate with me?

More carefully, more carefully, more carefully
More carefully, more carefully, more carefully
