Is everything what you think it is?
How have we ever made it this far?
Oh why isn't this how it's supposed to be?
Don't you feel like you'll never wake up? Never wake up?

Where am I? Where am I?
Where is everyone in my life?
Isn't this supposed to be questioned?
Then why haven't you found the answers yet?
Where are the answers? The answers!

Is it not supposed to be like this?
Who had the nerve to tell you that?
Do you think they have seen you lately?
When will they find you?
Will you forgive them?
Did you ever think it would feel like this?
Should we wait for the rest of them?

Where am I? Where am I?
Where is everyone in my life?
Isn't this supposed to be questioned?
Then why haven't you found the answers yet?
Where are the answers? Where are the answers?
Where are the answers?
Can you find the answers?
Can you, can you find me?

Did this help you?
Do you really know yourself?
May you listen again?
Is this really happening?
I think the answers, I think the answers in you!
