I said
Come over to my place
You're always in my head
And I want you now

I said
Come over to my place
I want you in my bed
And I want you now

Yesterday when you walked away
I pretended not to cry
Tried so hard to put on a smile
But all I wanted was for you to stay

I said
Come over to my place
You're always in my head
And I want you now

I said
Come over to my place
I want you in my bed
And I want you now

I did my best to clean out your mess
Still my pillow smells like you
Tried so hard just to take a rest
From you but I can't get rid of you

I said
Come over to my place
You're always in my head
And I want you now

I said
Come over to my place
I want you in my bed
And I want you now

I did my best to clean out your mess
Still my pillow smells like you
Tried so hard just to take a rest
From you but I can't get rid of you

I did my best clean up your mess
I did my best clean up your mess
I did my best but I can't get rid of you
