I thought you were my friend
I thought I was yours
I thought I knew you well
I thought this friendship would
Ne-ever end

I thought I knew you but I
Never thought we would tell each other lies
I thought I knew you
And I, I thought we had nothing left to hide
I thought I knew you well

When you held my hand
And I held yours
I thought I knew you well
When you spoke of love
You spoke of trust

I thought I knew you but I
Never thought we would tell each other lies
I thought I knew you
And I, I thought we had nothing left to hide
I thought I knew you well

Yeah, this is the last times for us to Stand up and never
Yeah, this is the last try
Our last chance
To save this friendship of ours

And I never thought we would tell each other lies
I thought I knew you
And I, I thought that we had nothing left to hide
I thought I knew you
And I, never thought we would tell each other lies
I thought I knew you
And I, I thought that we had nothing left to hide
I thought I knew you well

I thought I knew you well
