Oh I'm so tired of the blogging, yeah I'm so tired of them bothering
This thing called modern generation is bored of life across the login
Yeah, I'm so tired of opinions and all the shallow agitation
I call the local weather station
It's raining bullshit through the nation

Go get far, here comes a message from an empty
heart
Go get far, tweet it, tweet it, little star
Plastic faces, plastic words
We're all living in our plastic world
And we are caught in mud
Plastic places, plastic fools
God, we're sure misunderstood
Aha, in this plastic world

This is a world with people starving
Young people dying, bombs are falling
We do our party conversations
About our make-up and foundation
And all this talk about fashion
It's such a vested life obsession
Who's in, who's out, who bloody cares?
I close my eyes and disappear

Go get far, here comes a message from an empty
heart
Go get far, tweet it, tweet it, little star
Plastic faces, plastic words
We're all living in our plastic world
And we are caught in mud
Plastic places, plastic fools
God we're sure misunderstood
Aha, in this plastic world
In this plastic world

In this plastic world

Plastic faces, plastic words
We're all living in our plastic world
Plastic places, plastic fools
God, we're sure misunderstood
In this plastic world
In this plastic world
