Remember when the lights went out
And there we were, without an answer
To chase away the questions that we had.

You played the part.
You took me home,
And taught me how to get along
With all the things
I wasn't ready for.

But here's the thing
I want you with me,
All the time.
So please come on,
Been here too long,
I'm ready to move on.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
So tell me what you're waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
So show me what I'm waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.

I see us there,
With everything we could ever want.
With everything we could become.
Who we were meant to be.

But here's the thing.
I want you with me,
All the time.
So please come on,
Been here too long,

I'm ready to move on.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
So tell me what you're waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
Just show me what I'm waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
So tell me what you're waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.

Hey, you know,
You better make your move,
Before I'm gone, for good.
Just show me what I'm waiting for.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
C-C-C-C-Come on already.
