It's time to say goodbye
It's time to go away
Forever? Not anymore
Seeking what you want
Breaking out a cell
Forever? Not anymore

And I am wondering how you feel
Getting it for real
Searching everything
Doing as I can
Sacrificing everything
But I still love you anyway

Every day I wonder how you can live your life
How you can believe that you're doing alright
The path that you follow
The words that you hide
I see from a distance the look in your eyes
You're pushing me away now
You want to be alone now
Wont't let me in now

And I am wondering how you feel
Getting it for real
Searching everything
Doing as I can
Sacrificing everything
But I still love you anyway

It's time to go away
To a place where we can stay
Everlasting love
Forever anymore
Just open up that door
Seek and you will find

This is me she said
This is me she said
This is me
This is me
This is me
