Something's changing, it's taking over
The dark light in this night

We will sneak out, through the backdoor
Dance like we never did before
And then a little more, more, more
Till our body's begging
Begging for some sleep, but we
But we won't, we will, we will swing the night away
We'll swing the night away.

A small step, a big smile, is all we ever need in these times
If you go, I will follow

We will sneak out, through the backdoor
Dance like we never did before
And then a little more, more, more
Till our body's begging
Begging for some sleep, but we
But we won't, we will, we will swing the night away
We'll swing the night away.

1, 2, 3 I'm counting all the nights that we
That we had to miss this kiss,
Yes miss this kiss of you and me, you and me

We will sneak out, through the backdoor
Dance like we never did before
And then a little more, more, more

We will sneak out, through the backdoor
Dance like we never did before
And then a little more, more, more

We will sneak out, through the backdoor
Dance like we never did before
And then a little more, more, more
Till our body's begging
Begging for some sleep, but we
But we won't, we will, we will swing the night away
We'll swing the night away.
