Do you really want the past, to return tomorrow morning
This you'd rather forget, when you where younger
All the sorrow and the strife, when you have just awoken
Don't want to live your life, with your eyes open

Don't you want to start up something new
Won't you let me have my way with you

Can't you see me move ahead, I just want you to follow
Why do you look so sad, your eyes are hollow

Don't you want to start up something new

[itermezzo]

Don't you want to start up something new

Don't you want to start up something new
