

Coretta Scott "Piano"

Visit "Piano" on MotoLyrics.com

I am black keys scattered and afraid sounds like our notes could never agree Perfectly ivory
play me something happy

The eyes that trace cedar and feel melody or those that just stare and never agree Perfectly ivory
Play me something happy

Finding the note to end on 21 years and the same selfish song
God put you in my piano love dreams
All of my warm words are coming out mean

Finding the note to end on 21 years and the same selfish song
God put you in my piano love dreams
So don't wake me up while I sleep Woke up alone again and I traced the sheets to find you'd left left side of my bed, left side of my chest wanted something bigger than myself and if I could take care of you, taking care of me we could be so happy promise me that you're
promise me that you're
promise me that you're happy (Perfectly ivory, play me something happy)

the hardest part of this is
the hardest part of this is
the hardest part of this is letting go

Visit Coretta Scott page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.